GREASER COUPLE GOES ON WILD ADVENTURE!

Teenagers Leave Town Behind for Night of Mayhem, Love and High-Speed Thrills

POLICE BAFFLED AFTER CITYWIDE RAMPAGE AND DINER SMASHUP

By RICK DAWSON
Herald Staff Writer

A wave of trouble swept through the city late last night as a teenage boy and girl—believed to be high school sweethearts—left a trail of destruction in their wake.

Police say the pair stole a '57 Chevrolet and led officers on a dangerous high-speed chase before crashing through the front window of the Starlite Diner.

They were last seen heading west on Highway 99.

Authorities warn the couple should be considered ARMED, RECKLESS and HOPELESSLY IN LOVE.

STARLITE DINER OWNER SPEAKS OUT “THEY’RE THE WILDEST KIDS I’VE EVER SEEN!”

“I’ve run this diner for twenty years,” said Rose Carter, owner of the Starlite Diner.

“But nothing like this... that girl behind the wheel—cold as ice. And that boy? He was gone the minute he looked at her.”

The couple is wanted for auto theft, assault, criminal damage, reckless endangerment and... whatever else fits.
